SAP is acquiring SmartRecruiters

SAP announced Friday that it has reached an agreement to acquire recruiting software company SmartRecruiters.

In a press release, the European software giant said that SmartRecruiters’ “powerful, user-friendly interfaces and seamless workflows” will complement SAP’s existing HR tools.

Muhammad Alam, the SAP executive board member who leads product and engineering, said in a statement that with this acquisition, “Customers will be able to manage the entire candidate lifecycle — from sourcing and interviewing to onboarding and beyond — all in a single system to streamline the experience for recruiters, hiring managers and, in particular, candidates.”
