The sequel to ‘The Social Network’ may have just found its lead actors

Over a decade after “The Social Network,” director Aaron Sorkin is reportedly working on a sequel, possibly with two leads in mind.

While the 2010 original film focused on Mark Zuckerberg’s rise, “Social Network Part II” is said to draw from Jeff Horwitz’s “The Facebook Files,” which exposed Facebook’s harmful effects on teens and its role in spreading misinformation.

According to Deadline, Jeremy Allen White from “The Bear” is being considered for the role of Horwitz, while Mikey Madison, known for her Oscar-winning role in “Anora,” may portray Frances
