Zuckerberg and Meta investors reach settlement in $8B privacy case

Mark Zuckerberg and other current and former Meta executives have settled a lawsuit filed by a group of shareholders, who were seeking $8 billion for the damage the executives caused the company by allowing repeated violations of Facebook users' privacy in relation to the Cambridge Analytica scandal.

The parties did not disclose details of the settlement, according to Reuters.

Facebook shareholders filed a lawsuit against Mark Zuckerberg, former COO Sheryl Sandberg, and other executives, alleging they intentionally violated a Federal Trade Commission agreement by sharing user data with third-party apps without
