On Tuesday, Geely offered to pay $25.66 per Zeekr American Depositary Receipt (ADS), or $2.566 per ordinary share, which was about 14% higher than Zeekr's Monday afternoon closing price, in a deal that values the company at $6.5 billion. ADS holders can also opt to receive 12.3 newly issued Geely shares per ADS.

Aside from skirting potential geopolitical awkwardness, Geely has a lot to gain from taking Zeekr private and not much to lose. Geely already owns 65.7% of Zeekr through its founder Li
